Construction Law Update

Hear about recent judicial decisions and newly-passed legislation that will have a direct impact on your company, issues that are timely and important, and learn how to better protect yourself from lawsuits, fines, and confrontations.

You will learn about the newest case law and most recently passed statutes in various northwest states and nationally.

This presentation is designed to provide you with the most up-to-date knowledge to protect and help grow your business.

Get the latest word from one of Spokane's best construction lawyers, Mike Bissell of Campbell, Bissell & Kirby, PLLC.
